

Exam registration

In order to register for the exam, you need to log in to Campo Portal and search for the exam subject via Main Menu – Studies offered – Show university course catalog.

In the "Course catalog" section you will find all the modules of the Faculty of Engineering within the field Medizintechnik and you should select the right PO version.

You can use the "Expand subtree" function on the far right to display all selectable exams in your degree program, or you can click through the respective substructure.

In front of every exam subject there is a yellow star with the exam number.

When you click on it, detailed information about the exam will be shown and there you will find the green "Login" button.
